

AUA ADDP 2024-A Tapestry of Natural, Cultural, and Social Diversity in Indonesia

Program name	AUA Asia Deep Dive Program 2024 – A tapestry of natural, cultural, and social diversity in Indonesia
Host university	Universitas Indonesia (Host) Universiti Malaya (Co-Host)
Mode	Hybrid (Offline and Online)
Date	9 – 29 July 2024
Expected outcomes	This program offered several benefits to the students, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A good knowledge about geological phenomena within the Pacific Ring of Fire; - A better understanding of the interaction between volcanoes and culture; - An experience in some spiritual context; - A deep dive into the complex and culturally diverse challenges in biodiversity conservation in Indonesia; - A unique and comprehensive educational experience in the context of Indonesia's rich and diverse ecosystems; - Understanding traditional knowledge through ethnobiology: the intricate relationship between cultures and indigenous biodiversity.
Program schedule	Please see Appendix 1
Eligible participants	Participants should be registered as active students at their university and have a recommendation by a faculty leader from their university
Fees for AUA members	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Free registration for students from AUA members - Travel stipend for one student from each AUA member university depends on their flight origins as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Malaysia, Singapore, and Thailand: USD 150 2. Myanmar, India, Hong Kong SAR: USD 350 3. China's Mainland: USD 375 4. Sri Lanka, South Korea, Japan, Kazakhstan, Saudi Arabia, and the United Arab Emirates: USD 500. - All cost includes local accommodations (hotel), meals, local transportation during activity, and all expenses for multicultural trips in Jakarta and Yogyakarta.